It is 1868, the week that Benjamin Disraeli becomes Prime Minister of the Empire. Sherlock's beautiful but poor admirer, Beatrice, the hatter's daughter, appears at the door late at night. She is terrified, claiming that she and her friend have just been attacked by the Spring Heeled Jack on Westminster Bridge and the fiend has made off with her friend. At first Sherlock thinks Beatrice simply wants his attention, and he is reluctant to go back to detective work. He also believes that the Jack everyone fears is a fictional figure. But soon he is suspicious of various individuals, several of them close friends.

Set at a time when many in England were in a state of fear because a Jew was running the country, Shane Peacock presents a compelling story filled with an atmosphere of paranoia and secrets and surprises played out on late-night London streets. Sherlock gets drawn deeper and deeper into the pursuit of the Spring Heeled Jack, whose attacks grow in number until it seems that there are Jacks everywhere.

The Secret Fiend is the fourth book in Shane Peacock's award-winning Boy Sherlock Holmes series, combining brilliant storytelling with fascinating historical detail and a mystery worthy of one of the greatest sleuths in English literature.

SHANE PEACOCK was born in Thunder Bay, Ontario, and grew up in Kapuskasing. A biographer, journalist, and screenwriter, he is also the author of several novels and plays. He has received many honors for his writing, including the Arthur Ellis Award for Eye of the Crow, the first of the Boy Sherlock Holmes series. Shane Peacock lives with his wife and three children near Cobourg, Ontario.

Scrooge junior.

Jim is a fourteen-year-old bully, car thief, and all-round bad kid. The sort of kid you don't feel sorry for when he gets run over. Which he does. Lying in the middle of the road, in a coma, Jim has a near-death experience where he meets some ghosts and learns a few home truths. He resolves to smarten up when he awakens. But Jim's quest for moral redemption does not go smoothly. His strange family, troubled friends, and pathetic former victims all work against him. Me & Death is thought-provoking, scary, and hilarious – sometimes all at the same time. A true-to-afterlife adventure.

RICHARD SCRIMGER is the award-winning author of nine novels for young readers, three picture books, three books for adults, and numerous essays, screenplays, and short stories. His first children's novel, The Nose from Jupiter, won the 10th Annual Mr. Christie's Book Award. His latest adult novel, Mystical Rose, was a Globe & Mail book of the year. He has four teenaged children, a collection of speeding tickets, and, usually, a puzzled expression. Visit Richard at his website, www.scrimger.ca.

PRAISE FOR INTO THE RAVINE:

"Scrimger is a deft and funny storyteller who understands early adolescent boys, their dreams, and their realities.... A funny, scary, exciting, and spot-on adventure." – Booklist

"...a thoroughly enjoyable book that is certain to entertain readers...."
– VOYA

PRAISE FOR FROM CHARLIE'S POINT OF VIEW:

"Deft characterization, a strong mystery, elements of the paranormal, and Charlie's unique point of view make for a great read."

– School Library Journal

"Readers will rush to find out whodunit, but they'll come away with more than the answer to the mystery; they'll clearly grasp that people are more than what they seem to be." – Booklist

"From the mouths of these smartalecky characters come zinger after zinger, resulting in a laugh-out-loud-on-the-subway read ... an undercurrent of emotion ... will resonate with readers...."

– Time Out New York Kids

"Scrimger's novel is plotted like a story or a sitcom, with the lives of many diverging, interweaving and converging often with funny results...." – The Toronto Star

Folly

Marthe Jocelyn

Winner, TD Canadian Children's Literature Award

Set in the late 1800's, Marthe Jocelyn's stunning new novel is told in the voices of four people whose lives and destinies intertwine. There's Mary, who begins "exceeding ignorant" (apart from what a girl can learn from family mayhem, a dead mother, and a grim stepmother) and winds up encountering lust and betrayal when she becomes a servant in a fine house in London. Mary's nemesis is another maid in the household, Eliza. Eliza also knows lust and betrayal, but she doesn't know who is betraying who.

Mary's and Eliza's actions will intersect with a foundling home in London, where Oliver is a teacher who tries to avoid feeling anything that will perhaps make him live a real life. And then there's the foundling boy, James. Who will he grow up to be if he doesn't know where he comes from?

In the chaotic way of every life, where the past, present, and future collide, Marthe Jocelyn has traced a story that is heartbreaking and unforgettable.

Toronto-born MARTHE JOCELYN is an award-winning author and illustrator. Her picture book Hannah's Collections was short-listed for the Governor General's Literary Award for Illustration. Her novel Mable Riley won the inaugural TD Canadian Children's Literature Award. For more information about Marthe Jocelyn, please visit: www.marthejocelyn.com.

PRAISE FOR WOULD YOU:

"It is difficult to overstate the brilliance of Would You...."
– The Globe and Mail

"...[an] exquisitely honed novel...." – Starred Review, Publishers Weekly

"The narrative's strength is in its candor.... A realistic and very credible account of how one family's life is inexplicably and unexpectedly shattered." – Kirkus Review

Did you call out to us, Johnny, before your small body was dragged down under the water? Why didn't we hear you? I am sorry! I'll never forget.

Louisa Gardener is the fourteen-year-old nursemaid to the young daughters of a wealthy, titled family living in London, England, in 1912.

Despite the bullying Nanny Mackintosh, for whom she is an extra pair of hands, she loves her work and her young charges. Then everything changes. The family decides to sail to New York aboard the Titanic. An accident to the children's nanny, only days prior to the sailing, means that Louisa must go in her stead. She cannot refuse, although she dreads even the mention of the ocean. Memories she has suppressed, except in nightmares, come crowding back.

When Louisa was five and her sister seven years old, their two-year-old brother died on an outing to the seaside. Since that time, Louisa has had a fear of the ocean. She blames herself for the accident, though she has been told it wasn't her fault.

If Louisa refuses to go on the voyage, she will be dismissed, and she will never get beyond the working-class life she has escaped from.

How Louisa learns self-reliance, overcomes her fears, and goes beyond what is expected of a girl makes No Moon an unforgettable story.

Born in Germany, IRENE N. WATTS is a playwright and writer who has worked throughout Canada and Europe. She has published many award-winning books for children, including Good-bye Marianne, Finding Sophie, Remember Me, Flower, When the Bough Breaks, and Clay Man: The Golem of Prague. # Grease Town

Ann Towell

When twelve-year-old Titus Sullivan decides to run away to join his Uncle Amos and older brother, Lem, he finds an alien and exciting world in Oil Springs, the first Canadian oil boomtown of the 19th century.

The Enniskillen swamp is slick with oil, and it takes enterprising folk to plumb its depths. The adventurers who work there are a tough lot of individuals. In this hard world, Titus becomes friends with a young black boy, the child of slaves who came to Canada on the Underground Railroad. When tragedy strikes in the form of a race riot, Titus's loyalties are tested as he struggles to deal with the terrible fallout.

Though the characters are fictitious, the novel is based on a race riot that occurred in Oil Springs, Ontario, on March 20, 1863. Grease Town is historical fiction at its finest.

ANN TOWELL was born in Chatham, Ontario, and grew up in Wallaceburg. She was co-finalist, with her husband, world-renowned photographer Larry Towell, for the Dorothea Lange/Paul Taylor Award for work on the Mennonites, a segment that appeared in the 1994 summer edition of Descant magazine. Her first children's novel The Hollow Locust Trees was published by Black Moss Press in 1998. She has four children: Moses, Naomi, Noah, and Isaac and a granddaughter, River Annabelle. She lives near Shetland, Ontario, on a 75-acre farm.

A heartbreaking history of prejudice, family ties, and the loss of innocence

Word Nerd

Susin Nielsen

Finalist, Canadian Library Association's Young Adult Book Award

Chosen, Best Bets, Ontario Library Association

When bullies at school almost kill twelve-year-old Ambrose with a peanut to see if he is truly allergic, his mother, overprotective at the best of times, decides he will study at home. Home is a basement apartment in a house owned by a kind and warm Greek family. Ambrose is a Scrabble ace, having played for years with his mother at the kitchen table. The son of the house's owners, Cosmo, also plays Scrabble. But he learned it in jail.

Cosmo and Ambrose couldn't be more different, but as they discover a shared love of words and a desire for acceptance, they develop a friendship that is both hilarious and moving.

Gemini Award-winner SUSIN NIELSEN has written sixteen episodes of the hit television show Degrassi Junior High and four of the books in the Degrassi series. She is the co-creator and showrunner of the critically acclaimed television series Robson Arms. She also adapted Susan Juby's Alice, I Think into a TV series. Susin Nielsen lives in Vancouver with her husband, Goran, son, Oskar, and Sam the cat.

PRAISE FOR WORD NERD:

"... is one of the most delightful reading experiences of the year."
– Reader's Choice: Books of the Year by Quill & Quire

"This is a tender, often funny story.... It will appeal to word nerds, but even more to anyone who has ever longed for acceptance or had to fight unreasonable parental restrictions."
– Starred Review, School Library Journal

"... a beautifully drawn character.... [a] funny, wry tale, a tale that involves a lot of Scrabble (at the championship level), the reformation of an ex-con/druggie and the coming-into-himself of a boy. And there's a bit of love, too, actually." – The Globe and Mail

Mrs. Kaputnik's Pool Hall and Matzo Ball Emporium

Rona Arato

Ten-year-old Shoshi and her eight-year-old brother, Moshe, arrive in New York in 1898 from Russia with their mother and Snigger, the baby dragon that saved them from an attack by Cossack soldiers. Five years earlier, their father had also come to New York to make his fortune, but no one has heard from him since. Through a series of adventures and misadventures, Shoshi and Moshe use their wits to navigate through New York City's Lower East Side, making new friends and even a few foes: Salty, the seaman who helps the family smuggle Snigger through Ellis Island; Aloysius P. Thornswaddle, carnival barker extraordinaire; Dingle Hinglehoffer, pitcher for the Brooklyn Slobbers; and the mysterious Man in the Black Cape. With the help of Snigger, they set out to solve the mystery behind their father's disappearance, helping to free the Lower East Side from the tyrannical rule of gangster Nick the Stick along the way. Mrs. Kaputnik's Pool Hall and Matzo Ball Emporium is a colorful tale that blends history and fantasy with a journey of discovery, adventure, and fun.

RONA ARATO was born in New York and grew up in Los Angeles. Her work has appeared in magazines and newspapers in Canada and the United States. She taught elementary school in Los Angeles and Toronto, adult creative writing for the Toronto District School Board, and has conducted business writing workshops for profit and non-profit organizations. From 1994-1998, she was an interviewer for Survivors of the Shoa, a Steven Spielberg project that recorded the histories of Holocaust survivors. Rona Arato lives in Toronto with her husband, Paul.

Alison Dare, The Heart of the Maiden

J. Torres
Illustrated by Jason Bone

Alison Dare is not your typical twelve-year-old. She's the daughter of an archaeologist/adventurer and the masked hero known as the Blue Scarab. To top it off, she's also the niece of an international super-spy; it's no surprise that a craving for danger is in her blood! Unfortunately, her parents have locked her away at the prestigious St. Joan's Academy for Girls, hoping that this would lead to a more "normal" life for their daughter.

But despite all the strict rules at the school, Alison and her best pals – Wendy and Dot – somehow manage to find themselves involved in adventures that rival those of Alison's globetrotting, planet-saving relatives. Whether it's magic genies, super-powered bank robbers, or a dastardly baron bent on world domination, Alison Dare delivers the best thrills since Indiana Jones and more action than Lara Croft!

J. TORRES is the acclaimed writer of such kid-friendly comics as Teen Titans Go! and Jason & the Argobots. His partner, artist JASON BONE, is an accomplished cartoonist whose work has graced Spiderman: Tangled Web and Paul Dini's Mutant, Texas.

Ann Love and Jane Drake
Illustrated by Bill Slavin

From our earliest beginnings, we have shared our lives with animals. Jane Drake and Ann Love explore the ties that humans and their pets have formed. With fun and fascinating facts, they address Dog People and Cat People. (Why does a cat wind around her owner's legs? She's rubbing her owner with glands on her face to say "you're mine.") They also introduce us to more unusual pets. There's Polly the parrot, who lived through the Klondike Gold Rush to be 126 years old by belting back whiskey, swearing, and biting gold miners. And, of course, there are fish and reptiles, rodents and horses, all of whom can be beloved pets. As useful as it is fun, Talking Tails is a must for children who have or want a pet.

ANN LOVE and JANE DRAKE, sisters and coauthors, have written many award-winning books for young readers, including Cool Woods: A Trip around the World's Boreal Forest; Snow Amazing: Cool Facts and Warm Tales; Trash Action: A Fresh Look at Garbage; Sweet! The Delicious Story of Candy; and Alien Invaders: Species That Threaten Our World. They share a lifelong interest in the environment and the wild, travel extensively, and, through their books and presentations, inspire children to be more observant of the world around them. Ann Love and Jane Drake live in the Toronto area.

BILL SLAVIN has illustrated over seventy books for children, including The Big Book of Canada by Christopher Moore and It's a Snap: George Eastman's First Photograph in Monica Kulling's 'Great Idea Series', biographies for the very young. He has won the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Illustrator's Award, the Blue Spruce Award, and the Zena Sutherland Award for Children's Literature, among many others. Bill Slavin lives in Millbrook, Ontario. For more information about the work of Bill Slavin please visit: www.millbrookgallery.com/slavin.htm.

Cyclist BikeList

The Book for Every Rider

Laura Robinson

Illustrated by Ramón K. Pérez

Bikes are becoming an ever-more vital part of daily life for people of all ages. Laura Robinson combines fascinating history (the first bike was propelled by the rider's feet pushing against the ground) with useful and fun information, including tips for the way to dress for safe and efficient biking; what to eat for maximum body efficiency; and how to select and maintain a bike.

The book features riding superstars like Lance Armstrong as well as the kids from Chippewas of Nawash First Nations, whose mountain bike team is coached by Robinson.

Detailed diagrams and charts of different types of bikes, tire treads, and even road signs, along with bios of famous cyclists throughout history make this lively book the perfect resource for both dedicated riders and first-time cyclists.

LAURA ROBINSON has been a freelance journalist for nearly twenty years, and she is the author of five books on issues in sports. She was a former member of Canada's national cycling team and a former Canadian rowing champion. Robinson coaches the Anishinaabe Racers, a mountain bike and Nordic ski team at Cape Croker First Nation Elementary School in Ontario, Canada. Her first children's book, Great Girls: Profiles of Awesome Canadian Athletes, became a best seller. Cyclist BikeList: The Book for Every Rider is her second children's book.

RAMÓN K. PÉREZ has been working as a cartoonist for little over a decade. His catalogue of work is as diverse as the styles he employs. He has illustrated comic books, manga, children's books, role-playing games, collectible card games, and magazines. Ramón K. Pérez is the creator of a somewhat autobiographical weekly online comic strip Butternutsquash and the new adventure comic strip Kukuburi.

Which Way?

Marthe Jocelyn and Tom Slaughter

A new book from the team of Marthe Jocelyn and Tom Slaughter, Which Way? is an invitation to explore and understand the concepts we see every day in the signs around us. Navigating the world involves many decisions. How do we know which way to go? Will we pedal or drive? Do we need a map? Will we detour to see the scenery? This colorful book takes the reader along the right path; introducing road signs, directions, stoplights, and common sights that are part of any journey.

Toronto-born MARTHE JOCELYN is an award-winning author and illustrator who lives in Stratford, Ontario. Her picture book Hannah's Collections was short-listed for the Governor General's Literary Award for Illustration and her novel Mable Riley received the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award. For more information about Marthe Jocelyn, please visit: www.marthejocelyn.com.

TOM SLAUGHTER makes his home in New York City. His artwork has been exhibited in the United States, Europe, Japan, and Canada. His prints are in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum of Modern Art.

EATS*A feast of a book for the very young

This delicious treat of a book about animals and what they eat is the perfect read-and-discuss-aloud for very young children.

Marthe Jocelyn matches creatures both familiar and unusual with their favorite foods, and Tom Slaughter brings them to life with masterfully cut paper shapes in bold colors. Jocelyn and Slaughter have garnered critical acclaim for their creative books that introduce children to concepts in the world around them but also to modern art.

PRAISE FOR EATS:

"top marks here for concept and execution" – The Globe and Mail

"... simple and elegant... Young readers will savor the concept while poring over the compositions." – The Horn Book

"... an excellent introduction for those just starting to learn about relationships." – School Library Journal

Same Same*A different book about things that are the same

Same Same is a delightful exploration of similarities – with a twist. What do elephants and whales and the universe have in common? What does a bird have to do with a bee? Discovering the answers is fun as Marthe Jocelyn and Tom Slaughter team up again to deliver a book that challenges the mind as well as the eye.

PRAISE FOR SAME SAME:

"... a book like this is an essential part of the very young child's library." – Starred Review, Publishers Weekly

"Aside from the sheer energy and stylishness of art and design it displays, Same Same nudges kids to enjoy visual qualities in the world around them.... There's something energizing about the very vibrancy of both colour and concept here." – The Toronto Star

Marla Stewart Konrad

This delightful series is the result of collaboration between Tundra Books and World Vision Canada to bring an array of exceptional photos from around the world to very young children. Each book centers on a universal theme, familiar by its very nature, yet new due to faraway settings and ethnic, cultural, and socio-economic diversity. Each remarkable photo essay will foster discussion, observation, and many smiles as children compare and contrast their own experience to that of others.

I Like to Play presents the many inventive ways that children find to explore their worlds and to have fun. Grand! is a loving visual essay about the relationships that tie grandparents and grandchildren, no matter where they live or what the circumstances. The country where each photo was taken is included.

MARLA STEWART KONRAD is a speechwriter and communications professional. Her career has taken her to Hong Kong, where she lived for two years, and to numerous countries in Asia and Africa. She is keenly interested in global issues and has a special concern for the well-being of children. She works with World Vision Canada and lives near Toronto with her family.

PRAISE FOR GETTING THERE:

"Attractive color photos shot in many countries by different photographers ... A gorgeous book ..." – Kirkus Reviews

"... stunning photographic essays with minimal text.... The combination of words and photographs evokes compassion and celebrates life in all its variations.... [A] series that is ideal for schools and libraries, wherever diversity is celebrated." – Excellent from Resource Links

PRAISE FOR MOM AND ME:

"The overall message for children is: Mom is always there for me and 'she loves me like nobody else.'" – Editor's Pick on Canadian Living

"Marla Konrad has beautifully captured the special bond shared by mothers and their children in a worldwide context...."
– Highly Recommended and 4/4 stars from CM Magazine

Filomena is a seamstress who spends her days creating gorgeous wedding dresses for many lovely brides. And when it's finally her turn to be the one to walk down the aisle, she can hardly contain herself. She gets right to work, putting her heart and soul into making her dress. But Filomena gets carried away. She adds so many frills, feathers, and lace that her groom barely recognizes the girl he loves. Here Comes the Bride is a hilarious story about staying true to your inner beauty. Accompanied by the lively paintings of Anna Laura Cantone, this special story highlights the age-old truth that the dress does not make the lady.

Here Comes the Bride was originally published in Italian as Una sposa buffa, buffissima, bellissima by Arka. It was nominated for the White Ravens award in 2001 and named Andersen Award Best Picture Book in 2003.

BEATRICE MASINI lives and works in Milan. She is a graduate of Classical Studies and has worked as a journalist for various newspapers. Although she is also a publishing consultant, Beatrice spends most of her time writing and translating children's books.

ANNA LAURA CANTONE lives and works in Milan. She graduated from the European Institute of Design, where she now teaches children's illustration. She has exhibited her paintings and sculptures in galleries in her native Italy and around the world. Her many children's books have received national and international acclaim and are published in various languages.

Nana's Getting Married

Heather Hartt-Sussman

Illustrated by Georgia Graham

Life with Nana is perfect: she always has time to bake fresh chocolate chip cookies, tell wonderful bedtime stories, and knit cozy mittens and socks and turtleneck sweaters. Perfect, that is, until she meets Bob. All of a sudden, Nana's too busy for baking and storytelling and knitting. She's spending her time talking on the phone, giggling, taking long bubble baths, singing love songs, and putting on makeup! What can one aggrieved little boy do to get back Nana – just the way she was?

Complemented by the playful, quirky, chalk-pastel art of Georgia Graham, Nana's Getting Married will ring a familiar bell with every child who has had to share the attention of a beloved adult. What's more, it demonstrates hilariously that love has nothing to do with age.

HEATHER HARTT-SUSSMAN, born in Montreal, graduated from Brandeis University and attended the Sorbonne. She has been a copywriter for BCP in Montreal, a reporter for the Hollywood Reporter, editor-in-chief of international news for TV Guide in French Canada, columnist of the popular "Heather Hartt in Hollywood," and host of E! Entertainment Television's The Gossip Show. Nana's Getting Married is her first book. Heather Hartt-Sussman lives in Toronto with her husband, sons Scotty and Jack, and the family dog.

GEORGIA GRAHAM, born and raised in Calgary, has been using chalk pastels since childhood. She began using artwork to entertain children in her Sunday school class and has illustrated several children's books, including Wanda and the Wild Hair and Wanda and the Frogs, by Barbara Azore. The Lime Green Secret, which she wrote and illustrated, was published to critical acclaim. Georgia Graham lives on a tree farm in central Alberta with her husband and dog, Ginger. Amazing stories can be told with almost no words, as Anne Villeneuve demonstrates in The Red Scarf, originally published in French as L'écharpe rouge.

One day, a taxi driver finds a red scarf left behind in his cab by a customer. Determined to find the scarf's owner, the cabbie unknowingly walks into a world filled with strange characters: a friendly lizard, a mischievous bear, a fearsome lion and his tamer, a daredevil, and a mysterious magician. Before he knows it, the cabbie becomes part of the show. Young readers will relish this almost wordless picture book about a seemingly ordinary day, which quickly turns into an extraordinary adventure.

ANNE VILLENEUVE's art has appeared in magazines, ads, and so many children's books that she's lost count. Her illustrations for children's books have won her many honors, including the Governor General's Literary Award – Children's Illustration and the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award for L'écharpe rouge (The Red Scarf), which she both wrote and illustrated. According to Anne, happiness can be found at the end of a dock. She loves Romeo and Juliette, her cats. They like her too, as long as she gives them food. Anne Villeneuve lives in Quebec.

Sail Away With Me

Jane Collins-Philippe

Illustrated by Laura Beingessner

Jane Collins-Philippe loves the sea – after all she has spent many years living on a sailboat – and she has collected verses old and new to share her understanding and affection. Some of the poems will be familiar, like Eugene Field’s “Wynken, Blynken and Nod.” Others are from Collins-Philippe’s own pen and are sure to become favorites. Who could resist a poem about a ship with a hippo for a captain and a giraffe named Joyce for a lookout?

Laura Beingessner’s charming art is the perfect complement to a collection that will delight children, whether they are old salts or landlubbers.

JANE COLLINS-PHILIPPE grew up in Toronto and was a teacher. She became a committed and effective advocate for people with disabilities and worked closely with People First, an organization formed and run by people with developmental disabilities. For over twenty years, she has lived life at sea on a sailboat with her husband, splitting her time between the Mediterranean and France.

LAURA BEINGESSNER has loved to draw and paint ever since she was a little girl. She is the illustrator of several books for children including Our Corner Grocery Store by Joanne Schwartz and If the Shoe Fits, a New York Public Library’s 100 Titles for Reading and Sharing pick. She lives in Toronto with her husband and son.

Join one special boy on a journey through Topsy-Turvy Town. The place he lives is a town where it rains broccoli that crunches when it lands on the tops of umbrellas, where police officers march to a very different beat, where you can go fishing in your living room or even juggle a wildcat before bedtime. But not everybody shares his vision of Topsy-Turvy Town. His big sister thinks the very idea is crazy. His aunt thinks he's making it up. As for Dad, he ignores the weird and wonderful things his son sees. Luckily, he can share his imaginative world with someone who understands, his mom.

Author and an illustrator LUC MELANSON has published numerous books for children including Pink, Four Little Old Men: A (Mostly) True Tale from a Small Cajun Town, Redheaded Robbie's Christmas Story Edition 1, and The Grand Journey of Mr. Man. He won the Governor General's Literary Award – Children's Illustration in 2002 for Le grand voyage de monsieur. The book was also an IBBY CANADA choice book in 2003 and has been translated into Chinese, Korean, Spanish, and Galician. Luc Melanson lives in Montreal, Quebec.

So Close

Natalia Colombo

The story of Mr. Duck and Mr. Rabbit is a lesson to us all about reaching out. Every morning, Mr. Duck and Mr. Rabbit hurry past each other on their way to work and every evening they hurry past each other on their way home. Their paths cross in the town square and in the street and even in the park, but though both of them are dreadfully lonely, neither has the courage to speak

With very simple text and gorgeous illustrations, Natalia Colombo has created a book that will challenge the reader to realize that friendships are precious and there are opportunities for friendship all around us, if only we pay attention.

NATALIA COLOMBO studied at the Architecture and Graphic Design Faculty of Buenos Aires, the city where she lives. She works for many newspapers, including La Nacion and takes part in art exhibitions. She also illustrates text books and picture books for children

For some families, part-time jobs for children are a way to impart all kinds of skills and experience. For others, it's a matter of necessity if kids want spending money. Maxwell Newhouse, who is a plumber as well as an author and artist, understands this. The Weber Street Wonder Work Crew is a group of kids who have lots to offer their neighbors: from babysitting cranky toddlers to lending a hand in a garden, washing windows, and even helping an elderly lady who needs support to keep up with her friends online.

Lively folk-style paintings work with a simple text to inspire kids to take part in their own communities.

MAXWELL NEWHOUSE is a highly accomplished folk artist whose work has been widely exhibited in galleries across Canada. He has illustrated the critically acclaimed The RCMP Musical Ride, written by the artist himself, as well as Laura Secord: A Story of Courage, Emily Carr: At the Edge of the World, Let's Go for a Ride – a finalist for the Governor General's Literary Award in Children's Illustration – and The House That Max Built. Please visit his website at www.maxwellnewhouse.com.

PRAISE FOR THE HOUSE THAT MAX BUILT:

"Warmly rendered folk-art-style oil paintings show the house coming together over time. Varied perspectives focus on the people as much as on the work they do, reinforcing the importance of teamwork and specialization." – School Library Journal

"Children intrigued by construction will enjoy the level of detail, which includes a look at a variety as well as the exploits of Max's trouble-seeking terrier. Fresh and informative." – Booklist

Off We Go!

Beverley Abramson

New in board book format, critically acclaimed Off We Go! is an invitation to explore the joys of movement. Children spin and whirl, run, jump, and climb through the seasons in photographs that beg for discussion and storytelling.

Whether it is flying a kite or kicking a ball, skipping on the grass or riding a tricycle, Beverley Abramson has captured kids experiencing the sheer pleasure of exploring the world through movement. Best of all, she encourages children to discover the fun of physical play for themselves.

BEVERLEY ABRAMSON is an award-winning photographer known for her distinctive style, marked by empathy and wit. Photo essays and personal stories that she has written have been published nationally, and her work has been exhibited extensively. Beverley Abramson lives in Toronto. Please visit her website at www.beverleyabramson.com.
